

Direction: Economics, bachelor's degree, part-time study

B1.B23 Banking Abstract

6 ECTS, 216 academic hours.

Control form: exam.

Abstract: "Banking" studies the basics of banking, as well as trends in the development of the system of regulation and supervision.

To achieve this goal, it is necessary to solve the following tasks:

- Study of the historical development of banks;
- Study of topical problems of banking;
- Identification of trends in the development of the international banking system;
- Comparative analysis of the banking regulation and supervision system in developed and developing countries;
- Study of transactions carried out by commercial banks;
- Analysis of trends in quantitative indicators of the banking system of Armenia.

Relationship with other disciplines of the specialty: the course "Banking" is interconnected with such disciplines of the specialty "Economics" as "Microeconomics", "Macroeconomics", etc.

Requirements for the initial levels of knowledge and skills of students: Studying the course "Banking" presupposes the availability of knowledge obtained as a result of mastering the courses "Macroeconomics", "Microeconomics".