

Specialization: Economics, bachelor's degree, part-time study

B1B15 Life safe

Labor intensity: 2 ECTS, 72 academic hours.

Control form: pass/fail.

Summary. Life Safety studies general hazards, threatening every person, and develops ways to protect against them in any conditions.

During the course, information will be given and the rules of conduct and actions in extreme situations of an emergency and criminogenic nature, in conditions forced autonomy and emergency situations, information on the basics of defense state, as well as will be given recommendations and advice on organizing an individual a healthy lifestyle, emotional-volitional and physical preparation for activities in extreme conditions.

The purpose of the discipline:

- formation of students' serious attitude to harmful and dangerous factors everyday life of people, prevention of possible emergencies at production, reduction of damage from them;
- to get an idea of the impact of damaging factors on a person, the rules behavior in a difficult environment;
- formulate a general strategy and principles of safety assurance; approach development and application of remedies in negative situations from a general point of view.