

Specialization: Economics, bachelor's degree, full-time study

B1B24 Physical culture annotation

0 ECTS, 360 academic hours.

Control form: offset.

Summary. Physical education and sports training of students great attention is paid. The course of physical education has been introduced into the curriculum for all specialties operating in RAU. Physical education and sports are carried out not only to strengthen health, all-round development and sports improvement, but also in order to master skills of professionally applied physical training for the future productive activity, as well as the formation of the need for regular classes physical exercise and sports.