

Direction: Economics, bachelor's degree, part-time study

B1.B6 Armenian language annotation

8 ECTS, 288 academic hours.

Control form: pass/fail.

Summary. For students certified in Armenian language training last 2 semesters, and 3 semesters for those not certified.

The program of the practical course of the Armenian language consists of five sections, each of which includes the material of a certain area of linguistic communication.

The program also includes grammar material required for improving speech skills.

The goals and objectives of the discipline are based on the improvement of communicative students' abilities to deepen cognitive knowledge about different areas (literature, history, architecture, etc.) of the centuries-old culture of Armenia, about intercultural relations Armenian and Russian peoples.

Relationship with other disciplines of the specialty: as interconnected as it is deals with teaching and deepening the skills of the terminology of this discipline.