

Specialization: Economics, bachelor's degree, full-time study

B1.B2 Philosophy annotation

4ECTS, 144 academic hours.

Control form: offset.

Summary. The course provides students with an understanding of philosophy as a specific form spiritual culture, knowledge about its place and role in society, about the process of the formation of philosophy, about its main urgent problems; idea of the structure of scientific knowledge, the relationship of philosophy with the theoretical level of the scientific specialty, about a person's place in the world, as well as an explanation of the role of philosophy in public relations, which should contribute to the formation of students a certain worldview position based on the philosophical principles.