

Specialization: Economics, bachelor's degree, part-time study

B1.B28 Crisis management annotation

4 ECTS, 144 academic hours.

Control form: pass/fail.

Abstract: The course "Crisis Management" (for bachelor's degree) introduces students with:

- historical aspects of management;
- basic terms and concepts of management theory, as well as their essence;
- possible relationships between basic terms and concepts;
- control systems;
- a description of the concept of “crisis” and its characteristic features;
- the essence of management in times of crisis;
- a systematic approach to management;
- assessment of the quality of management.

Relationship with other disciplines of the specialty: course "Crisis Management" interconnected with the discipline "Management".

Requirements for the initial levels of knowledge and skills of students: Successful training in the course "Crisis Management" (for bachelor's degree) requires basic knowledge of systems engineering, the main sections of higher mathematics and formal logic.