

Master program, full-time study

Discipline: «Theories of Economic Development and Backwardness»

Annotation

Volume: 2 ECTS, 72 academic hours

Final control form: Pass

Summary

The course «Theories of Economic Development and Backwardness» is designed to familiarize students with the basic concepts of economic growth and development, factors contributing to the development of the country's economy. Within the framework of this course, an understanding of sustainable economic growth, basic theories of economic development and the specifics of the development of the economy of the Republic of Armenia is given.

Goals and objectives of the discipline.

The course is intended for graduate students and consists of 7 topics, the study of which will allow you to form a holistic idea of the peculiarities of the functioning of the economies of different countries.

Connection with other disciplines of the specialty.

Course is closely related to such courses of the specialty as: «Microeconomics. Advanced level», «Macroeconomics. Advanced level», «Migration policy», «Tax policy».

Requirements for the initial levels of knowledge and skills of students.

Basic knowledge of economic theory, including microeconomics, macroeconomics, history of economic studies, world economy, and international economic relations.