

Specialty: Political Economy, Master program, full-time study

Discipline: «State Innovation Policy»

Annotation

Volume: 4 ECTS, 144 academic hours

Final control form: Exam

Summary

The course program outlines the main provisions of the state innovation policy in the management of innovation processes and innovation projects, including business planning, information technology support and support, innovation financing policy, methods of stimulating innovative entrepreneurship.

The aim of the course is to master the basic theoretical and methodological foundations of innovation policy with a view to its practical application both in carrying out a specific economic policy at the macro level and in the development and management strategy of a company, firm, investment fund, etc.

After completing the course, students will become familiar with:

- the basic principles of the formation and functioning of an innovative economy at the macro and micro levels;
- the foundations of state innovation policy;
- policies for financing innovation;
- infrastructure of technology commercialization, methods of technology transfer;
- innovation management at the microeconomic level;
- methods of stimulating innovative entrepreneurship.

Connection with other disciplines of the specialty.

Course is closely related to such courses of the specialty as: «Actual Problems of Economic Policy».

Requirements for the initial levels of knowledge and skills of students.

Successful mastering of the course «State Innovation Policy» presupposes knowledge of the fundamentals of market theory and the foundations of economic theory.